

What Felix Can Do For You

Felix is less than a year old, but here is a list of all the questions Felix can currently answer. Felix is very smart, so you don't have to phrase your questions in the exact way mentioned here -- this is just a guide, just type questions how you normally would. However, Felix is still learning, so feel free to look back on this guide if you are having any difficulties, and feel free to email support@thefantasybot.com if you are still having any issues.

Can I get the news?

Every week during the regular season (and a few times during the offseason) you will receive a newsletter breaking down everything you need to know for fantasy football. This could include game recaps, important injury news, and Felix's Fantasy Friends vs. Felix's Fantasy Foes -- our take on love/hate. He'll send you a link to this, but if you can't find it, just let him know, by asking something like "Can I get the newsletter?" or "Send me the news".

Who do I start? (coming September)

To start or not to start, that is the question. We know that setting up the week's winning lineup is a tricky task. Felix is here to help you out and make those tough decisions for you. All you have to do is ask. He'll respond to texts such as "Should I start Lamar Jackson or Patrick Mahomes?" or "Do I play Saquon Barkley, Ezekiel Elliott, or Derrick Henry this week?", or your similar version of that question.

Who do I draft?

With the N-th pick in the 2020 draft, your team selects..... It's a hard choice, we know. Let Felix pick out the next stud RB or unknown deep sleeper. No matter the round or pick, use Felix to draft your next MVP. Ask him questions like "Should I draft Le'Veon Bell or Todd Gurley?" or "Who is a better pick: Zach Ertz, Travis Kelce, or George Kittle?"

Should I trade...?

Deal or no deal? Whether this trade took 5 minutes to discuss or a full FBI negotiation team, Felix is here to tell you who is winning the trade based on the long term value of the players on each side. Just ask your question like you normally would ask a friend. "Should I trade Dalvin Cook and Aaron Rodgers for Christian McCaffrey?" or "Who wins this trade: Julio Jones and Josh Jacobs or Michael Thomas and Sony Michel?" -- it's that simple. Our advanced algorithms will instantly determine who's winning this trade in the long run.

Should I make this claim?

Flash Sale! These items must go! Welcome to the waiver wire: the lazy river of fantasy football misfits. Deciding who to pick up and who to drop is not easy. Felix will let you know who projects to have a higher value over the rest of the fantasy football season. Just ask for his thoughts: “Should I pick up Sam Darnold and drop Daniel Jones?” or “Is this a good move: add Jimmy Garoppolo and drop Drew Lock?” In addition, you will receive a list of Felix’s waiver wire targets as a part of your weekly newsletter.

Tell me about...

Didn’t do your homework? Don’t worry. Felix did it for you. If you want a brief breakdown of any player, just ask Felix. He’ll have a lot to say about some of the biggest names in fantasy and constantly be researching to make sure he’s bringing you the best and most relevant breakdowns. All you need to do is ask: “What are your thoughts on Carson Wentz?” or “How is Chris Carson looking?” and you’ll get a data-driven breakdown beautifully crafted by Felix.
